Wife Finds Body In Bed; Was In Business In City For 32 Years

Walter B. Hartman, proprietor of a long established grocery business in this city, active church worker, and prominent lodge member, was found dead in bed at his home, 1820 South Fifth street, at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. He was 62 years old.

The body was found by his wife, who had prepared breakfast and, thinking her husband, had overslept, went to his room to call him.

Mr. Hartman had been in the grocery business in this city for thirty-two years. He was born in Springfield, Mass., but had been a local resident for the last fifty years. He formerly was employed by Albert Booth, who conducted a grocery store on Monroe street. Mr. Hartman purchased the business from Mr. Booth. The present location of the Hartman grocery is at 619 East Monroe street.

Active Church Worker.

Mr. Hartman was an active member of the Laurel M. E. church and also was widely known through his fraternal affiliations, being a member of St. Paul's Lodge No. 500, A. F. and A. M., Springfield Council

He served on the official board of Laurel church and was to have participated in the every-member canvass of that church which starts today.

When visited at his store Saturday morning by Rev. E. S. Combs, pastor of the church, Mr. Hartman told the minister he was not well and did not think he would be able to take part in the canvass. Buildings To Top 880 Feet

Chicago Tower Will Cost About 45 Millions

Chicago, Aug. 26. (AP)—Complete plans for the Chicago tower, the world's largest building, were announced today by Walter W. Ahlschlager, architect, who stated that the proposed structure will rise 880 feet, exceeding by eighty-eight feet the height of the Woolworth building, now the world's highest structure.

The skyscraper will utilize the air rights of the Illinois Central railroad, being erected directly above the Randolph street yards, on an extension of Wacker drive east of Michigan avenue. The building will cost about $45,000,000. Building operations will begin next February 1.

The floor area of the structure, approximately 3,639,094 feet will be nearly five times that of the 120 Broadway building, New York, which is now the world's most spacious building. The normal day-time population of the Chicago tower will be 18,000, with sixty passenger elevators and nine main entrances on four double level streets for its accommodation.

ROCHESTER GETS GRANT FROM P.W.A.

A loan and grant of $33,000 was allotted to the town of Rochester by the P.W.A., it was announced yesterday in Washington. The money is to be used for the erection of a waterworks for Rochester. Thirty per cent of the amount is a grant and the remainder a loan which must be paid later.

Although the erection of a waterworks has been planned for some months, construction has been held up pending official action in Washington on the grant. The program calls for extention of a pipe line to Lake Springfield, provided proper arrangements can be worked out.

Congressman Harry H. Mason yesterday notified officials of Rochester's town board that President Roosevelt had placed final approval on the loan and grant.

In 1854, the cemetery was enlarged by The Odd Fellows fraternal organization, and came to be known as the Odd Fellows Community Cemetery. Chemeketa Lodge #1, the first Odd Fellows Lodge in the state of Oregon, tended it for nearly 100 years. The Lodge relinquished their caretaking to the city of Salem in the 1950s.

Until 1985 the cemetery was left nearly abandoned when local residents formed the entirely non-profit "Friends of the Pioneer Cemetery." The "Friends" have raised funds through grants and donations to keep the cemetery maintained.

Visitors to Pioneer, find that it is a place of beauty and history. Being situated on Commercial Street, it is seen by thousands of passing motorists daily. Its more than 16 hillside acres provide a wonderful view of the city and the Willamette Valley.

Salem Pioneer Cemetery is located at the corner of Hoyt and Commercial Streets in South Salem. The land on which the cemetery is located was originally part of the Reverend David Leslie land claim and was set aside by him for family burials in 1841. Reverend Leslie was one of the Methodist Missionaries sent to the Willamette Valley along with Reverend Jason Lee.

Asks Ruling On Truck Act

May Need No Safety Tests, Preihs Says.

State Rep. Carl Preihs, of Pana, yesterday asked for a ruling on whether safety testing of trucks is still required by Illinois law.

Preihs, in requesting an opinion from Attorney General Latham Castle, said a study of truck law changes enacted by the 1953 legislature leads him to the conclusion there will be no compulsory safety testing after next Jan. 1.

That is the date when the Illinois commerce commission takes over regulation of for-hire trucks under a new law.

Preihs, a Democrat, is secretary of the legislature's motor vehicle laws commission.

He said he believes that no public liability and property damage insurance will be required except for commercial trucks regulated by the commerce commission.

Preihs also raised a question about hours of truck drivers which he said had been limited by the Illinois truck act to 11 hours in any 24 hour period.

He asked Castle for an opinion on these points too.

Asks Divorce.

Gladys Terry filed suit for divorce against Robert H. Terry yesterday in Circuit Court, charging cruelty, and seeking custody of a son, 4 years old.

Notes
Information for Theodore from Jon Fredricks, 5/2001.

These typed letters were sent to Wendell Walcher (Grand Junction, Colorado) in 1978.
From Theodore R. Walcher, 314 N. Buena Vista, Hemet, CA 92343, Phone 714-025-8732
Dear Mr. Walcher,
Thank you for your recent letter and the info you have obtained. I am enclosing a copy of some of my information I has some time ago. Then some more data.
There is a Walcheren Island (Holland) in Lat. 51 N 30 and 2bout 4 NE Long. I found it on several National Geographic maps in the local library. One town on it is Middleburg, listed in my Atlas at 51-32 N and 3-35 E. So far I have not been able to find Walcherberg.
Additional on Walcher of Malvern, circa 1092 AD, a book by Ellen McCaffery," Astrology - Its influence and History in the Western World," has a few lines about him. I have been a deep student of Astrology and similar occult subjects for many years, dealing greatly on effects of eclipses.
A relative of mine in Tower Hill, Illinois said his minister told him, his mother or could be grandmother, had been an Ella Walcher. I sent him a copy of the copy above (copy below this letter) but have had no response from him. I started in Yeatman High School in St. Louis in 1917, and several teachers asked me if I was Eddy Walcher's brother. He had evidently made a name for himself thru athletics or something.
I do not know my Grandfather's name or any of his brothers and sisters. My father, Daniel Theophilus Walcher had one sister, we called her Aunt Kate (Catherine?) who married a German in the Irvin(g)-Witt area, who died and she later married a James Wilding who moved to Arkansas and later to California.
There is a report among my older brothers that my father visited other Walchers in the Irving-Witt area but could not determine any relationship. At one time he thought of using WALKER as a name, thinking it meant Walcher in German. Checking a small German-English dictionary I can't verify this. All I find for walk in German is "wof".
I value the info you have supplied. Any further info you or I can gather, I will be glad to share and transmit.
Sincerely, Ted Walcher
P.S. I understand my grandfather was born in Iredell County, North Carolina.

Enclosed with the above letter:
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN
The history of the Walchers seems to go back before the year 1100 AD One of my nieces, Mrs. Ramona Ryan, a collector of interesting postcards has a postcard from Walcherburg in Germany. There seems to be a number of clergy in its continuing history, and in the Lutheran Church. For instance, my father, born in 1839, was not a minister, but his father was the first Lutheran minister in the state of Illinois. He is reported to have been a circuit rider, preaching at different localities and to have come to Illinois by horseback from North Carolina thru the Indian county. I believe the "Montgomery News" on the occasion of "Old Setters Day" wrote some account on this. I do not know what year this was, but probably in the 1940's.
I was told the Walcher family is or was quite prominent in Philadelphia, PA being city fathers, etc. There was a Walcher family in St. Louis around 1917, but no relation to my branch. Also two or three other Walchers located in Los Angeles after I and my two brothers, Clyde and Roy came.
There must have been other Walchers in the Witt-Irving area. I cannot place an Ella Walcher as being related to my branch of the family. My fathers name was Daniel T. Walcher.
To go much further back:
An excerpt from an article in the July 1972 issue of "Fate Magazine" entitled "Astrology-Potential Science and Intuitive Art" by Ralph Metzner, a psychologist with Stanford University's testing and counseling center. Quote:
"The eclipse of October 18, 1092, was observed and recorded by the English prior Walcher of Malvern, who had emigrated from the then German Lotharingia (now Lorraine), France. Walcher, as he notes in his manuscript, obtained his findings by means of an Arabic astrolabe. This is the first know proof that Arabic astronomy cum astrology had reached England as early as the 11th century. Undoubtedly, it did so even earlier." End of quote from Fate.
I would appreciate any further information that anyone can supply as to the various Walcher branches.
Theodore R. Walcher, 314 N. Buena Vista, Hemet, CA 92343

In 1930 Theodore was living with his brother, Clyde Leroy Walcher in Florence Pct, San Antonio Twp., Los Angeles County, California and was the owner of a transformer shop where Clyde worked.

Bonnie, I am needing an obituary for George "Frederick" Walcher, b. 3 May 1864 in Illinois and died in Canon City, CO on 3 June 1923. If no obit, then would like to have a picture of stone, but do not know cemetery. Could you help me? Will be happy to reimburse for copies. I have found him in the 1910 and 1920 census for Fremont county, 1910 in 28thPct in 1920 in South Canon City. His wife is Sarah, do not have any info for her, hoping obit will give me some clues. Will be happy to reimburse for time and copies. Very much appreciate your help.

Hi Barbara,
Here are the two obituaries you requested.

W.B. HARTMAN, LOCAL GROCER, DIES SUDDENLY
Wife Finds Body In Bet; Was In Business In City For 32 Years

Walter B. Hartman, proprietor of a long established grocery business in this city, active church worker, and prominent lodge member, was found dead in bed at his home, 1820 South Fifth street, at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. He was 62 years old.

The body was found by his wife, who had prepared breakfast and, thinking her husband had overslept, went to his room to call him.

Mr. Hartman had been in the grocery business in this city for thirty-two years. He was born in Springfield, Mass., but had been a local resident for the last fifty years. He formerly was employed by Albert Booth, who conducted a grocery store on Monroe street. Mr. Hartman purchased the business from Mr. Booth. The present location of the Hartman grocery is at 619 East Monroe street.

Active Church Worker

Mr. Hartman was an active member of the Laurel M.E. church and also was widely known through his fraternal affiliations, being a member of St. Paul's Lodge No. 500, A.F. and A.M.; Springfield Consistory; Flower City Chapter No. 152, Order of Eastern Star, and Prosperity Camp No. 1418, Modern Woodmen of America.

He served on the official board of Laurel church and was to have participated in the every-member convass of that church which starts today.

When visited at his store Saturday morning by Rev. E. S. Combs, pastor of the church, Mr. Hartman told the minister he was not well and did not think he would be able to take part in the canvass. Rev. Mr. Combs replied that he need not worry about the matter and that arrangements could be made to have some one else take his place.

List Of Survivors

In addition to his wife, Mrs. Nora Ethel Hartman, those surviving are: Three daughters, Mrs. Edith Greenwalt, Rochester; the Misses Ethel and Ruth Hartman, city; one son, Walter Lee Hartman, Charleston, S.C.; one brother, Daniel, Edinburg; one sister, Mrs. Dora Wanack, Edinburg.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed as word is awaited from the son, Walter Lee Hartman, at Charleston, S.C.

Coroner Ernest Dye has not set the date for the inquest.

Bonnie, sent Ann a note that you might be contacting her, here is her reply, so please do. Her mother was 101 this year and still quite with it mentally! Looks like you are going to be on your way finding your Walcher family. Would you please send me your mailing address and phone number, I am including mine. I have found when I have only the email, sometimes people change without letting me know and then I can contact them throught the mail (of all the horrible thoughts!). Will be anxious to hear from you and where your research has taken you.

Barbara, it just so happens we are going to Sacramento today to visit Mom. I will ask her about Uncle Chester. It seems to me I remember them saying he worked with Eastern Airlines in Chicago. Daniel and Effie Alice Stump would be my great grandparents-the parents of Mabel Pearl Stump Walcher wife of Bert Harry son of Daniel T and Hattie(Harriet) Peak. I would love to correspond with Bonnie although I do not know much. I have often wondered about Daniel T and a probate settlement I am not the one who has it.
You have sparked my interest-now if I can just get organized! ha ha!
Will report on what Mom has to say-she can add a"lighter tone" to things with her memory. Love,
Anne

Bonnie, I am a descendant of the Walcher family that Chester Arthur is a member. In researching this family, I have corresponded with several members of the Daniel Theophilus Walcher family. Ann Walcher Wellhouse is a descendant of Daniel T. thru his first marriage with Hattie Pearl Peak. She has Daniel T.'s bible and states this:

"In the Probate of Daniel T. Walcher, it is stated that he has the following children: Fred Walcher, Benjamin Walcher, Charles Walcher, Elizabeth Walcher, Musa Henderson, Nora Hartman, Pearl Underfanger, Albert Walcher, Roy Walcher, Gladys Walcher, Theodore Walcher, Clyde Walcher, Chester Walcher and Russell Walcher, these are minors or infants, each being under the age of his or her majority, respectively, to wit: Gladys Walcher, Theodore Walcher, Clyde Walcher, Chester Walcher and Russell Walcher."

Ann lives in California and I am sure you can correspond with her through email at aww2@pacbell.net
I corresponded with her last week and she has replied; however, I did not mention our correspondence since I did not know if your email address was valid.

Since there is a probate, and I know that Chester Arthur Walcher was living in the home Daniel Stump and wife, Effie in the years of 1910 and 1920 in Irving Township, Montgomery Illinois. I would also write for a guardianship record for Chester. Your should be able to get a copy for just the cost of the copy through IRAD, the Illinois Regional Archive Depository. The one for the Montgomery County area is the University of Illinois at Springfield (UIS). In Google search engine, put in IRAD and you can find the address to write and what to ask for. I did not know who Daniel Stump is, however, a half-brother of Daniel T., Bert Harry was married to Mabel Stump and there might be a link there. I believe Ann might know, but it may also state in the guardianship.

Another thought to being sure if Chester Arthur is a son of Daniel T. and Anna Kinder is to request a copy of his (your great grandfather) social security application. That document is completed by the applicant and lists the names of father and mother. Since he is the last child born to Daniel T. Anna dies in 1905 but Ann did not list Chester as a child of Anna????? So the SS application would be worth checking out.

Now--I do not have any children listed for Chester Arthur in my database and you are one of the descendants, I hope you will share with me your family information. Several of the Walcher researchers are hoping to complete information to publish a book taking our Walcher line back to North Carolina. One of those researchers is Jon Fredericks of Ocala, FL who answered one of your postings on GenForum, Jon is working on the North Carolina connections. So you can see you have a large group of Walcher cousins who welcome you into the research project and hope we can help you with your research.

I look forward to hearing from you, please feel free to contact me if you have further questions. I will be happy to share additional information with you.
Your Oklahoma cousin,

To: Ann Wellhouse <aww2@pacbell.net>

Ann, received a note from a lady, Bonnie Joslin who is looking for information on her Chester Arthur Walcher family. She is the great granddaughter of Chester. I gave her your name and the information you had sent me from the probate record of Daniel T. She may be contacting you, however, I suppsated she write and get a copy of the guardianship for Chester. I found him living in the home of Daniel and Effie A. Stump in the census years 1910 and 1920. Married in Chicago in 1920. So now we know Chester had at least one child, you may already know. Will sit back see what I get from her, as asked for additional info on Chester's family. Will be looking forward to hearing from both of you.
Much love,
bsb

Personal Reminiscences of Lutheranism
by Rev. S.W. Harkey D.D.

The following article we copy from the Lutheran Observer, published Philadelphia Pa. We publish it from the fact it might be interesting to those of our Lutheran subscribers of whom we have many, and also from the fact that Rev. Daniel Walcher, spoken of in the article as the first Lutheran minister of Illinois, resided near Litchfield, Ill., and to the reader, the more interesting because the aged widow of the Rev. Daniel Walcher is now living, and has been for several years, here in Pana, Ill. with her esteemed daughter, Mrs. Kate Surbeck.....

(Rev. S.W. Harkey) I have stated that my first visit to Illinois was made in the summer of 1838, and I was fourteen days in coming from Frederick Maryland to St. Louis Mo., stopping two days at Cincinnati, having travelled by stage and private conveyance to Hillsboro, Illinois.

The prairies of Illinois were then in all their primative glory, stretching out many miles in all directions, grass and flowers beneath, and the Heavens above, no houses, farms, roads, and often not a tree as far as the eyes could see. A grand sight to the newcomer. Every now and then a herd of deer bounding off gracefully over the vast plain as you travel on, and numerous flocks of prarie chickens making things lively for you.

I landed at my Father's house, in Hillsboro Ill. on the 24th day of July 1838, just eight years and two months from the time I left home in No. Carolina as a poor farmers boy, for Gettysburg, to study for the ministry, during all-which time I had not seen my parents, or any of the family, and was now Pastor of the Lutheran Church of Frederick Maryland.

I found a large number of old neighbors & friends in this part of the State, who had emigrated from Carolina, and I spent a month among them, preaching almost every day in some school-house or private home.

The Rev. Daniel Scherer had come to Hillsboro in the fall of 1832 and had been looking after the "Lost Sheep" of our "Household of Faith" in almost all parts of Southern & Central Illinois.

The first settlement of Lutherans was made in Ill., Union Co., 1817, in the Southern part of the State, and a few years later, settlements began to be made in Montgomery County. The first Lutheran Church, some five miles from Jonesboro, called St. Johns. It was of logs, not unlike the Log Cabins of the Pioneers. A neat frame Church House in which I, myself, had preached, now occupies the same site, and is still called St. Johns.

Personal Recollections of Lutheranism
by Rev. S.W. Harvey D.D.

The following article, we copy from the Lutheran Observer, published Philadelphia Pa. We publish it from the fact it might be interesting to those of our Lutheran subscribers of whom we have many, and also from the fact that this Rev. Dentist wielder, spoken of in the article as the first Lutheran minister of Illinois, resided near Litchfield, Ill., and so the reader, the more interesting because the aged widow of the Rev. Daniel Wagner is now living, and has been for several years, here in Pana, Ill., with her widowed daughter, Mrs. Kate Gurbsch.....

(Rev. S.W. Harvey) I have stated that my first visit to Illinois was made in the summer of 1838, and I was fourteen days in coming from Frederick Maryland to St. Louis Mo., stopping two days at Cincinnati, having travelled by stage and private conveyance to Hillsboro, Illinois.

The prairies of Illinois were then in all their primeval glory, stretching out many miles in all directions, green and flowers beneath, and the heavens above, no houses, farms, roads, and often not a tree as far as the eyes could see. A grand sight to the newcomer. Every now and then a herd of deer bounding off gracefully over the vast plain as you travel on, and numerous flocks of prairie chickens making shines lively for you.

I landed at my father's house, in Hillsboro Ill. on the 29th day of July 1838, just eight years and two months from the time I left home in Md. Carolina as a poor farmers boy, for Gettysburg, to study for the ministry, during all-which time I had not seen my parents, or any of the family, and was now Pastor of the Lutheran Church of Frederick Maryland.

I found a large number of old neighbors & friends in this part of the State, who had emigrated from Carolina, and I spent a month among them, preaching almost every day in some school-house or private home.

The Rev. Daniel Sorrer had come to Hillsboro in the fall of 1832 and had been looking after the "lost sheep" of our "household of faith" in almost all parts of Southern & Central Illinois.

The first settlement of Lutherans was made in Ill., Union Co., 1817, in the Southern part of the State, and a few years later, settlements began to be made in Montgomery County. The first Lutheran Church, some five miles from Hillsboro, called St. Johns. It was of logs, not unlike the log cabins of the pioneers. A neat frame church house in which, myself, had preached, now occupies the same site, and is still called St. Johns.

The first Lutheran Minister that ever set foot in Illinois soil, was the Rev. Daniel Walcher, a licentiate of the Synod of No. Carolina. He made a visit to this State in the summer of 1825, especially to the settlements of Union County, spending several months with these people, preaching for them in the German Language, Baptizing their Children, & comforting them by the Word of God.

He traveled the whole distance from Carrabus County, No. Carolina, and home again on horseback. I remember to have heard him preach in Carolina when I was a boy, and tell about the country and the people, & relate some of his adventures and "hair breadth" escapes, which he had made, especially in crossing rivers & swamps, and how one night he was compelled to camp out alone, having lost his way and unable to find a house, he & his faithful black horse, came near being devoured by wolves. Fortunately he came to a place where some one had camped the night before, and left some fire. A pack of wolves came and howled around him, and the only way he kept them off was by gathering sticks of wood and keeping a large fire blazing all night.

This man later removed to Montgomery Ill. County and lived on a farm, the land adjoining the Corporation of what is now the City of Litchfield, but then a wild prarie.

He died and is buried not far from this place (Elmwood Cemetery) (Land donated by the Walchers).

I preached in a lone school house (standing) on this same spot where this city of 5,600 inhabitants is now located (Litchfield)

Not long after Mr. Walcher left Union County, a European German Minister named Shoenberg, also from No. Carolina, whom I remembered personally as having staid for two weeks at my Father's home, visited these peopel and became their Pastor. I think he was the first Lutheran Pastor to settle in this State, an educated man, had something of a Library, & spent several years here preaching in the German Language. He had no family, & after a time left his Library & some property & started down the Mississippi on a trip to New Orleans, intending to be gone some months, but he never returned, and as far as I've been able to learn, no one knows what became of him.

Rev. S.W. Harkey D.D.

The first Lutheran Minister that ever set foot in Illinois soil, was the Rev. Daniel Wallner, a missionary of the Synod of No. Carolina. He made a visit to this State in the summer of 1825, especially to the settlements of Union County, spending several months with these people, preaching for them in the German language, baptizing their children, & instructing them by the Word of God.

He travelled the whole distance from Gerrardus County, No. Carolina, and home again on horseback. I remember to have heard him preach in Carolina when I was a boy, and tell about the country and the people, & relate some of his adventures and "hair breadth" escapes, which he had made, especially in crossing rivers & swamps, and how one night he was compelled to camp out alone, having lost his way and unable to find a house, he & his faithful black horse, came near being devoured by wolves. Fortunately he came to a place where some one had camped the night before, and left some fire. A pack of wolves came and howled around him, and the only way he kept them off was by generating strike of wood and keeping a large fire blazing all night.

III.

This man labor received to Montgomery County and lived on a farm, the land adjoining the Corporation of what is now the City of Litchfield, but then a wild prairie.

He died and is buried not far from this place (Hillwood Cemetery) (land donated by the Welchmeyer).

I preached in a long school house (standing) on this same spot where this city of 5,000 inhabitants is now located (Litchfield)

Not long after Mr. Wallner left Union County, a European German Minister named Shoemaker, also from No. Carolina, when I remember personally as having stayed for two weeks at my Father's home, visited these people, and became their Pastor. I think he was the first Lutheran Pastor to settle in this State, an educated man, had something of a Library, & spent several years there preaching in the German language. He had no family. & after a time left his Library & some property & started down the Mississippi on a trip to New Orleans, intending to be gone some months, but he never returned, and as far as I've been able to learn, no one knows what became of him.

[349] This list includes the 1912 "State Presidents," who seem to be similar to the previous state vice presidents. In 1914 there were no state [vice] presidents but for the first time there was an Organizer of Societies, Mrs. Leonara Caldwell Benson Hill. In 1917 and 1918 Mrs. Jno. S. Bukey was Organizer of Societies, and then the office disappeared. The office reappeared from 1922 to 1924 and was listed with the Corresponding Secretary. In 1925, the office was once again listed alone, with Charles Shepard, 2d as the officer. After that the office ceased to exist. From 1912 to 1970 there were three vice presidents; the number was reduced to two in 1970 and to one in 1998.

Nicole, have you had a chance to check out the obituaries for Perry and Kathryn Walcher? Know it was close to the holidays when we corresponded. Am back to researching due to 4 inches of ice here...looks like we will be at the computer until we have a thaw! Oklahoma is just not equipped to take care of such things! Know you have had weather in Oregon also.

Hi Barbara,

I will be happy to locate these for you. It will be a couple of weeks before I am able to go to the library. Please let me know if you would not like to wait that long.

As far as reimbursement goes, I do not ask for it. If you would like to, it would be $3 for the first copy and $25 for additional copies. The first is more expensive to help cover material packing.

I will let you know what I am able to find!
